The approach of the "Glorious Fourth' had an evident influence on business yesterday, which looked tolerably lively. The offerings in the feed market were small, and transactions were not of importance. There was little demand for corn, and none offering from first hands. Oats suffered another decline. Potatoes were in such small offering that, spite of declining markets above, buyers had to pay something over the preceding day. Apples were active and stiffer in price, according to size and condition. Eggs were lower and chickens heavy, except for large young. Since compiling the day's report we hear of sales of 100 sacks of cornoran at $10, 25 sacks of screenings at $11, and a car-load.	Cairo 19 7 1	JEWELER. 265 MAIN STREET, Cor. COURT. To-day is a holiday, and there was some tra movement yesterday on account of it; at the effect of it was but slight on the inks, notwithstanding they were all to be osed next day. Business is so quiet with sem that what would produce bustle at anher time can scarcely bring a ripple to the orace. No change in the course of money exchange was to be heard of yesterday; our per cents still in good demand; some intry for Shelby county scrip; nothing else impled investors to trade.
